

Our Code of Conduct guides how we interact with our various stakeholder.

Vodacom's code of conduct prohibits the giving of political contributions or the provision of support to an individual political party, Vodacom does however contribute towards the furtherance of democracy in some of its markets through donations made to a central democracy furtherance fund or body. Our code of conduct also guides how we interact with industry bodies, business associations and civil society organisations.

Vodacom is a member of the following:

1. Business Forums:

- Association of Commerce Industries and Services (ACIS)
- Black Management Forum (BMF)
- British Chamber of Business in South Africa (BCB)
- Business Leadership South Africa (BLSA)
- Business Unity South Africa (BUSA)
- Federation of Congolese Enterprises (DRC Chamber of Commerce) – (FEC)
- Business Forum for Maputo (FEMA)
- Global Compact Network South Africa (GCNSA)
- National Business Institute (NBI)
- National Environment Management Council (NEMC)
- South African Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SACCI)
- Tanzania Private Sector Foundation – Apex of Industry Associations and Private Sector
- World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF)

FY2024 spend: R3 180 785

2. Industry bodies:

- African Telecommunications Union (ATU)
- Alliance for Financial Inclusion Platform Participation (AFI)
- Association of Comms and Technology (ACT)
- Digital Tanzania Policy Forum - (Data Privacy & Cross-border Data Sharing Agenda)
- Global System for Mobile Communications Association (GSMA)
- GSMA Intelligence Subscriber's Portal
- Internet Service Provider Association (ISPA)
- International Telecommunications Union (ITU)
- Mwananchi Thought-Leadership Forum (Mobile Money Levy agenda)
- South African Communications Forum (SACF)

FY2024 spend: R8 842 803

3. Support of Democracy:

- Political Party Funding to Electoral Commission MPDF
- Parliamentary Monitoring Group (PMG)
- TAMNOA membership - Industry association, for budget and policy roundtable and parliamentary committee

FY2024 spend: R5 264 592